

Center on Online Learning and Students with Disabilities

Online Learning for Students with Disability and Other Diverse Learners: Accessibility, Engagement, and Beyond

Workshop
October 21, 2012
1:00-5:00 pm

Expected outcomes:

- Learn about the Center on Online Learning and Students with Disabilities;
- Become aware of critical questions relevant to understanding what's currently happening and what needs to be addressed to better meet the needs of students with disabilities;
- Understand the current challenges associated with online learning for students with disabilities; and
- Identify opportunities to become engaged in efforts to meet the needs of students with disabilities.

1:00	Welcome, Introductions, and Overview
1:30	What is Universal Design for Learning (UDL) and What does it Mean for Online Learning and Students with Disabilities? Accessibility?
2:30	Break
2:45	UDL, Online Learning, and Students with Disabilities: Instructional Design and Progress Monitoring
3:45	UDL ...: Family and Community Supports
4:45	Wrap Up: Wall of Issues

Facilitators:

Paula Burdette, NASDSE, paula.burdette@nasdse.org

Leslie Fetzter, North Carolina Virtual School, leslie.fetzter@ncpublicschools.gov Marjorie Rofel, Connections Academy, mrofel@connectionseducation.com

Sean Smith, KU, seanj@ku.edu

Skip Stahl, CAST, sstahl@cast.org

Keith Wilson, Lawrence Virtual School, KWilson@usd497.org